

ROYAL BLUE OBSERVATION CAR

A HISTORIC RAIL CAR RETREAT

When you step foot onto the grounds of the B&O Railroad Museum, where the first chapter of American railroading was written, you embark on a journey through time. The B&O affords visitors the opportunity to step into history, and that's what your guests will get to do when you book the Royal Blue Observation Lounge Car. This vintage 1948 rail car, featuring table & lounge seating, a bright art deco interior with bar, provides the optimal setting for intimate gatherings in a truly unique, authentically historic space unlike any other in Baltimore. Give your guests an extraordinary experience at the B&O.
